

THE BENEFITS OF PARTNERSHIP

Discount on home pest control for your team with Rentokil Steritech's Pest Perks Program

A thanks for your partnership

We're proud that you've selected Rentokil Steritech to be your partner in pest control.

With Rentokil Steritech's Pest Perks Program, you can now offer your employees a great benefit:

$50 off our residential pestfree365 program with our local companies Ehrlich, Western Exterminator, and Presto-X.* It's our way of saying "thanks" for your partnership.

Helping your employees keep their homes healthy and pest-free isn't just a nice work perk, it's also a way to reduce the likelihood that problem pests will be accidentally introduced to your facility.

The industry's most comprehensive home plan

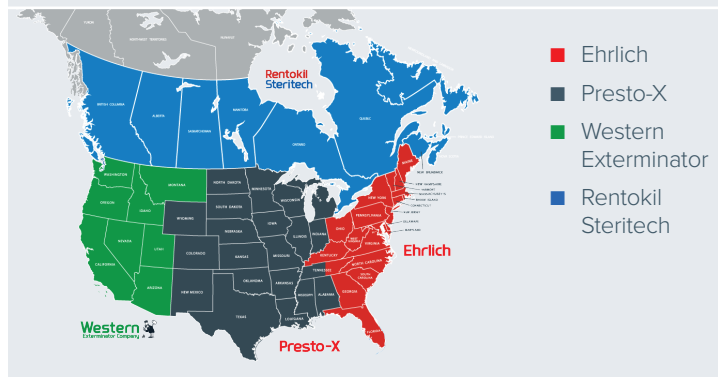

Across the U.S. and Canada, Rentokil Steritech's regional companies protect homeowners and their families from the damage that pests can cause. Our comprehensive pestfree365 program includes protection against 36 of the most common pests, including cockroaches, ants, and bed bugs.

Promote your new benefit

If you wish to implement the Pest Perks Program, ask your account representative how we can help you promote it across your organization.

Effective July 31, 2018, the Pest Perks Program is open to all current employees of any current commercial customer. To receive the $50 discount on residential pest control service, the individual requesting a company sponsored discount must be a new Rentokil customer who purchased a residential treatment service plan on or after July 31, 2018 at a single-family dwelling. The new customer will receive a one-time $50 discount off of the total price of the applicable residential treatment plan, including the initial corrective visit. This reward may not be combined with any other offer, program, plan or discount. Current customers are not eligible for this discount. Rentokil North America, Inc. reserve the right to change the terms of the Pest Perks program at any time, including terminating or suspending the program without further notice.  Home must be free of bed bugs at initial inspection to qualify for bed bug coverage.
